The charges of the TRC are as follows:

 - B. Truth-Telling The TRC shall: 1) Provide multiple fora and creative opportunities for persons impacted and traumatized by racial injustice to share their stories of racial injustice and experience to be heard by: (a) fellow communities of color; (b) a broad cross section of the entire Iowa City community; and (c) key decision-makers in city government, the business community and the University; 2) Explore ways to provide such opportunities through art, music, theater, workshops, rallies and other forms of congregation, multimedia and listening designed to reveal truths that cannot be fully expressed in traditional fora; and, 3) Create a repository for community stories expressed in multiple media (written, video, audio, art) that can be catalogued and used to educate and inform members of the community.
 - C. Reconciliation The TRC shall: 1) Provide opportunity for and facilitate direct conversation among and between community members of color, white community members and representatives of various sectors in which people of color experience discrimination and injustice (e.g. police and protesters, landlords and tenants, students and teachers, patients and health care providers, business owners and staff); 2) Create a replicable model that provides a structure for enabling these conversations throughout the city; 3) Make available opportunities for a broad cross section of the community to learn about discrimination and racial injustice in our community; and, 4) Identify and recommend to the City Council institutional and policy reforms, new social practices, expectations, protocols, habits, rituals, conversations and celebrations that will move Iowa City toward a shared experience of race and difference, justice and equity and community and harmony.
- The TRC shall have members who are representative of the City's BIPOC communities and organizations, including those who have direct lived experience with systemic racism, as well as experts who support those communities. To the extent possible, as determined by the City Council, the TRC shall include representation from groups such as the Iowa Freedom Riders, the Black Voices Project, the South District Neighborhood Association, the Iowa City Human Rights Commission, and the Community Police Review Board. Experience and/or activities which you feel qualify you for this position: *

As a person who experienced racial injustice and saw others experience it as well. There was always a hope that one day I will be able to play apart in resolving the issue, this newly formed commission to address racial injustice just became the hope that I was looking for. As a board member, I know I will do my best to bring justice and peace to families and persons who have experienced discrimination solely based on their appearance and skin color.

Some of the activates and experiences that worth to mention; I'm a member of the Sudanese Community Center here in Iowa City, I also did few internships, one of them was in Congress, another one was for the United Nations and the other was for the presidential elections 2020. I have also obtained my B.S in Political Science - major: International Relations from the University of Iowa.

I hope these information provides you with a brief introduction about myself, gives you an idea about my capabilities and skills and I hope it would lead you to consider me for the position. Looking to hear back from you.

What is your present knowledge of each advisory board you are interested in? *

I know the Ad Hoc and Reconciliation Commission is established to promote and honor the Black Lives Matter Movement. Where the Commission members are appointed to conduct meetings, collect witnesses and testimonies, and draft plans for the City Council to carry out the restorative justice in Iowa City.

Section 362.5 of the Code of Iowa generally prohibits, with certain important exceptions, a member of a City Board or Commission from having an interest in a City contract.

City Council Resolution # 15-300 established a policy that the following persons shall not be eligible for appointment to Boards and Commissions:

Res. #15-300 states that each application for reappointment to a City Board or Commission will be considered without regard to incumbency. If reappointed, an individual would be limited to one reappointment to a full term in order to increase the opportunities for new applicants to serve.

I am only generally familiar with most of them, but I know more about the Truth and Reconciliation Commission because I sat in on one of the city council meetings that discussed it and have read a description of what this commission intends to do. I think it's vital that we start this process on a local level so that we can eventually do this at a national level. As a white woman, I know that I'm not ideal as a member, but many of my jobs have been about making sure that things comply with fairness and sensitivity guidelines. I want to be of service in this endeavor because I work hard and have an eye for detail. If I'm chosen for any commission, I would check any white savior inclinations at the door and do my best to serve this community.

Potential Conflicts of Interest

The Housing and Community Development Commission makes recommendations to the City Council regarding the distribution of federal CBDG/HOME funds. The general rule is that no persons who exercise or have exercised any functions or responsibilities with respect to federally funded activities, or who are in a position to participate in the decision-making process or gain inside information with regard to such activities, may obtain a financial interest or benefit from a federally-assisted activity, or have a financial interest in any contract, subcontract, or agreement with respect to a federally-assisted activity, or with respect to the proceeds of the federally-assisted activity, either for themselves or those with whom they have business or immediate family ties, during their tenure or for one year thereafter.

Section 362.5 of the Code of Iowa generally prohibits, with certain important exceptions, a member of a City Board or Commission from having an interest in a City contract.

City Council Resolution # 15-300 established a policy that the following persons shall not be eligible for appointment to Boards and Commissions:

A Council Member's spouse, domestic partner or partner by cohabitation, children, step-children, children for whom the Council Member assumes parental responsibility, mother, father, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, step-parent, brother, sister, step -siblings and half -siblings, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, grandparents and grandchildren, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, first cousin, foster parent, foster child, persons who are parents of the same child, and persons with whom the employee is in an intimate relationship

Res. #15-300 states that each application for reappointment to a City Board or Commission will be considered without regard to incumbency. If reappointed, an individual would be limited to one reappointment to a full term in order to increase the opportunities for new applicants to serve.

Council policy is not to permit an individual to serve on two Boards or Commissions at the same time. You will be asked to resign from one if appointed to another.

Experience and/or activities which you feel qualify you for this position:*

I may be uniquely qualified to assist the committee in its first charge: fact-finding. In college, I had to complete two theses in order to complete my dual major. One thesis required more conventional modes of fact-finding (reading books, reviewing newspaper articles, etc). My other thesis forced me to get out of the library (and my comfort zone). My work lead me into deciphering centuries old military rolls, exploring the gravestones of long overgrown cemeteries, and to exploring a long forgotten green space between two busy sections of interstate. As a college student I learned that to get the facts, a person had to be creative enough to think beyond the traditional fact-find methods, then brave enough to follow-through and get the job done. Law school and my work experience as an attorney have only helped expand my fact-finding abilities. I believe my contributions to the commission can make it stronger and more effective.

What is your present knowledge of each advisory board you are interested in?*

My knowledge of Iowa City's Truth and Reconciliation Commission is limited to what is published on the city's website. I am familiar with the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of South Africa, established after the fall of the apartheid regime and with TRC commissions in general. I believe I understand the role of the Iowa City commission and the goals set forth for it. I hope to learn more whether or not I join the commission.

Experience and/or activities which you feel qualify you for this position:*

I was born and raised in Iowa City and have been involved in advocacy in Iowa City since 2013, working with local organizations such as the Emma Goldman Clinic, Shelter House, and the Rape Victim Advocacy Program. I am involved in local organizations such as IC Mutual Aid Collective and most recently the Iowa City Tenants Union. I have a strong understanding of the functionality of social services in Iowa City and the unbalanced allocation of resources which are meant to support the needs of all people. I have both experienced and witnessed the harmful, violent practices of groups such as the Iowa City Police Department, housing leaders, and the University of Iowa, actions which always most harshly effect historically marginalized populations including Black and Indigenous people, trans and non-binary people, and poor folks. In my role with JCPH I am dedicated to creating a safe and equitable environment for all people in the community, and improving the relationship between the local government and community members who have experienced violence at the hands of that very same local government, by creating transparent and trauma informed practices and centering the needs of those harmed in order to foster a safer, more accountable environment.

What is your present knowledge of each advisory board you are interested in?*

The purpose of the Truth and Reconciliation Committee is to bear witness to and address the racial disparities in our community by acknowledging the violence experienced by people of color in Iowa City. This discussion is long over due, and I hope to use my power within the community to uplift the voices of those most directly impacted by these practices in order to address them truthfully and directly.

Experience and/or activities which you feel qualify you for this position:*

I currently serve as the Director of the University of Iowa's Liberal Arts Beyond Bars college in prison program. Prison serves as a microcosmic representation of the broader issues of social justice across society. Within this context I have been tasked with navigating those challenging systems and issues and have developed strengths as both an advocate and a diplomat.

I am a law graduate from the University of Iowa's School of Law. During the summer after my first year of law school, in 1997, I traveled as part of a study abroad program in partnership with Howard University to Cape Town, South Africa, where I spent six weeks in school at the University of the Southern Cape and as an international intern for the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission. While my duties were tangential to the process, the experience was transformative and I wholly believe in the power of speaking truth in order to reconcile harm within a community.

Furthermore, as a Senior Program Associate for the Vera Institute for Justice I worked with college in prison programs across the country to develop and support programs, which required an understanding of systems reform and the importance of amplifying the voices and experiences of people directly impacted by systems of oppression. I also worked on the Re-imagining Prisons project, in which we strove to envision restorative alternatives to current punitive systems of punishment.

As a white woman I am working to critically examine my privilege and continue to work toward anti-racism in thought and practice, both personally and professionally. I believe my background and experience position me well to meaningfully contribute to the process of finding truth and reconciliation for the Iowa City community.

What is your present knowledge of each advisory board you are interested in?*

I have read and digested Resolution 20-228, establishing the Ad Hoc Truth and Reconciliation Commission in response to the Black Lives Matter Movement and systemic racism after the unjust deaths of George Floyd and other Black men and women across the country. Further, I have examined the charges and duties of the TRC as set forth on the ic.gov website.

The general rule is that no persons who exercise or have exercised any functions or responsibilities with respect to federally funded activities, or who are in a position to participate in the decision-making process or gain inside information with regard to such activities, may obtain a financial interest or benefit from a federally-assisted activity, or have a financial interest in any contract, subcontract, or agreement with respect to a federally-assisted activity, or with respect to the proceeds of the federally-assisted activity, either for themselves or those with whom they have business or immediate family ties, during their tenure or for one year thereafter.

Section 362.5 of the Code of Iowa generally prohibits, with certain important exceptions, a member of a City Board or Commission from having an interest in a City contract.

Experience and/or activities which you feel qualify you for this position:*

Sikowis (Christine Nobiss) is Plains Cree/Saulteaux of the George Gordon First Nation in Saskatchewan, Canada and grew up in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada. At 19 she began her life's work of uplifting Indigenous voices when she got her first job at the New Brunswick Aboriginal Peoples Council in Fredericton, Canada. In 2015, she founded Great Plains Action Society as a way to increase Indigenous solidarity in Iowa City. It turned into a full-fledged organization during the fight against the Dakota Access Pipeline, which led her to start Little Creek Camp in February 2017. From August 2017 to September 2020, she worked for Seeding Sovereignty where she organized at a national level.

As her heart is with her people and the land Sikowis is back with Great Plains Action Society where she can work at a grassroots level and a fully Indigenous-led organization.

Sikowis is also a speaker, writer, and artist. She believes that environmental and social justice work are inextricably linked and change will only happen when we dismantle corrupt colonial-capitalist systems and rebuild them with a decolonized worldview. She graduated from the University of Iowa in 2008 with a Masters Degree in Religious Studies (with a focus on Native American Religion and Culture) and a Graduate Minor in American Indian Native Studies. She fights for a better future for her two young children.

What is your present knowledge of each advisory board you are interested in?*

I've been following the development and fall out of this board and have noticed there has never been Indigenous leadership on it, which makes me want to apply

Experience and/or activities which you feel qualify you for this position: *

Lived in Iowa City for most of my adult life, being indigent most of the time. I have been systematically discriminated for my income level and a bonafide easy target for would be revenue makers in this municipality. From the boys in blue, to utility entities, to the court system. Where the truth and facts fall way down in the fiscal feeding frenzy conglomerate pecking order. I know my self truth, the truth of the land and it is beyond reproach. It is not for sale, nor compromisable for no one. The income gouging that has been commenced upon me in the form of fines to wages being garnished, to having my credit destroyed due to paper pushing ordinances that has left a lifetime long scar. I keep my perspective rational however, due to personal trauma highlighted by the well known death of my only brother. It has seated in a permanent empathy with only the truth moral code that will fight any form of discrimination or any form of racism.

The Housing and Community Development Commission makes recommendations to the City Council regarding the distribution of federal CBDG/HOME funds. The general rule is that no persons who exercise or have exercised any functions or responsibilities with respect to federally funded activities, or who are in a position to participate in the decision-making process or gain inside information with regard to such activities, may obtain a financial interest or benefit from a federally-assisted activity, or have a financial interest in any contract, subcontract, or agreement with respect to a federally-assisted activity, or with respect to the proceeds of the federally-assisted activity, either for themselves or those with whom they have business or immediate family ties, during their tenure or for one year thereafter.

Section 362.5 of the Code of Iowa generally prohibits, with certain important exceptions, a member of a City Board or Commission from having an interest in a City contract.

Res. #15-300 states that each application for reappointment to a City Board or Commission will be considered without regard to incumbency. If reappointed, an individual would be limited to one reappointment to a full term in order to increase the opportunities for new applicants to serve.
